

LEINSTER AERO CLUB present

FOURTH ANNUAL AIR DISPLAY

AT WESTON AERODROME, LEIXLIP, CO. KILDARE

3rd and 4th AUGUST, 1958

OFFICIAL PROGRAMME ... ONE SHILLING

THE AEROPLANE

EVERY FRIDAY, ONE SHILLING AND SIXPENCE

THE LEADING AVIATION JOURNAL OF THE WORLD

LEINSTER AERO CLUB LTD.

Patron :

The Marquess of Kildare

President :

Captain P. W. Kennedy

Vice-Presidents :

George Donohoe

Barry Egan

E. J. Jobling-Purser.

Chairman :

George Donohoe

Hon. Secretary : Ernest Verso

Hon. Treasurer : Barry Egan

Directors :

P. W. Kennedy, E. J. Jobling-Purser, George Donohoe, Barry Egan, Ernest Verso,
J. J. MacLoughlin, Kenneth Smith, Robert Magill, Cecil Buggy, Nat Preston, Phillip Haycock, James Healy.

Commentator : Chris Bruton

Flying Controller : Thomas Keogh

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Leinster Aero Club Ltd. wishes to acknowledge the help given by the undermentioned, without whose assistance this Display would not have been possible.

The Minister for Industry and Commerce.

The Minister for Defence.

The Garda Siochana.

Aer Lingus.

Aer Rianta.

Westland Aircraft Ltd.

Dublin Gliding Club.

The Irish Red Cross Society.

Cropculture (Aerial) Ltd.

The Irish Parachute Club.

Irish Aviation Club Ltd.

The Automobile Association.

The Model Aeronautics Council of Ireland.

St. John Ambulance Brigade.

Ferguson Ltd.

Irish Shell Ltd.

C. C. Wakefield and Co. (Ireland) Ltd.

Our thanks are also extended to the many firms and individuals whose help and co-operation were invaluable and to our advertisers whose support has made this programme possible.

The Leinster Aero Club Ltd. accept no responsibility for any damage suffered by spectators or others arising out of the Display no matter how caused.

The Helicopter Demonstrates Air-sea Rescue Work.

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

Item

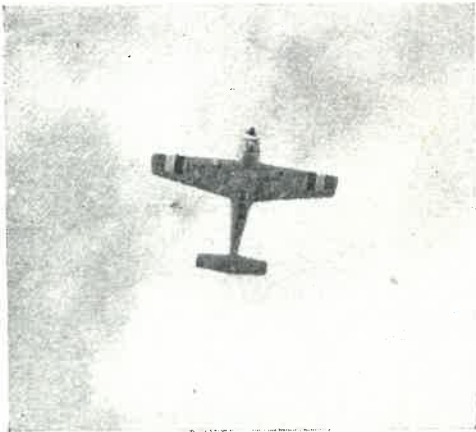

- 1 Opening of Air Display by a Distinguished Visitor.
- 2 The First and the Latest: Aer Lingus's newest airliner, the Viscount 808, contrasted with the first aircraft they operated, the D.H. Dragon.
- 3 Club aircraft in circuit.
- 4 Banner Pick-up by Captain Kennedy in Tiger Moth aircraft.
- 5 Trapeze act by M. René Vincent of Paris, suspended from the Club's Auster at 80 m.p.h.
- 6 Aerobatics by Club pilots.
- 7 Parachute supply dropping as an aid to Civil Defence, by Irish Parachute Club.
- 8 Aerial crop-spraying demonstration by Crop-Culture (Aerial) Ltd.
- 9 The Defence of Weston.
- 10 Gliding and Aerobatics by Dublin Gliding Club.
- 11 Modern Private and Executive Aircraft show their paces.
- 12 M. René Vincent in spectacular jump in which he uses three parachutes successively.
- 13 Aero sxpa owqskr Ytxwpo mnsd!g!
- 14 Novelty acts by Aero Club and Parachute Club members.
- 15 Thrilling delayed-opening parachute jump by F. J. Bond, Chief Instructor, Irish Parachute Club.

In the interests of safety, it is ESSENTIAL that members of the public do not encroach on the taxiing and flying areas; please keep behind the barriers and obey the instructions of the Marshals, otherwise the Display may have to be abandoned.

THIS PROGRAMME IS LIABLE TO ALTERATION WITHOUT NOTICE.

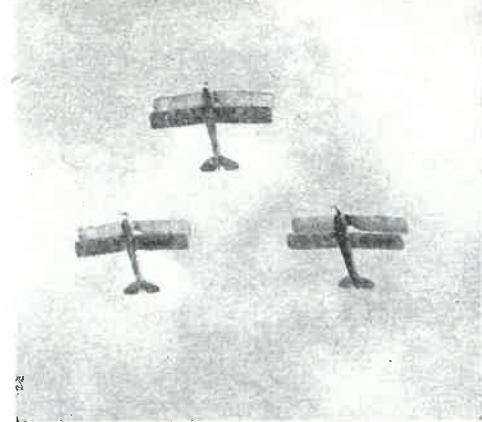

The patient is rushed to the waiting ambulance.

An Irish Air Corps "Provost" at Weston.

"Before the Drop"—Freddie Bond (centre) and two members of Irish Parachute Club about to "take off."

Three Club Tiger Moths in flying formation.

"The Daring Young Girl on the Flying Trapeze"—a feature of the 1957 Air Display.

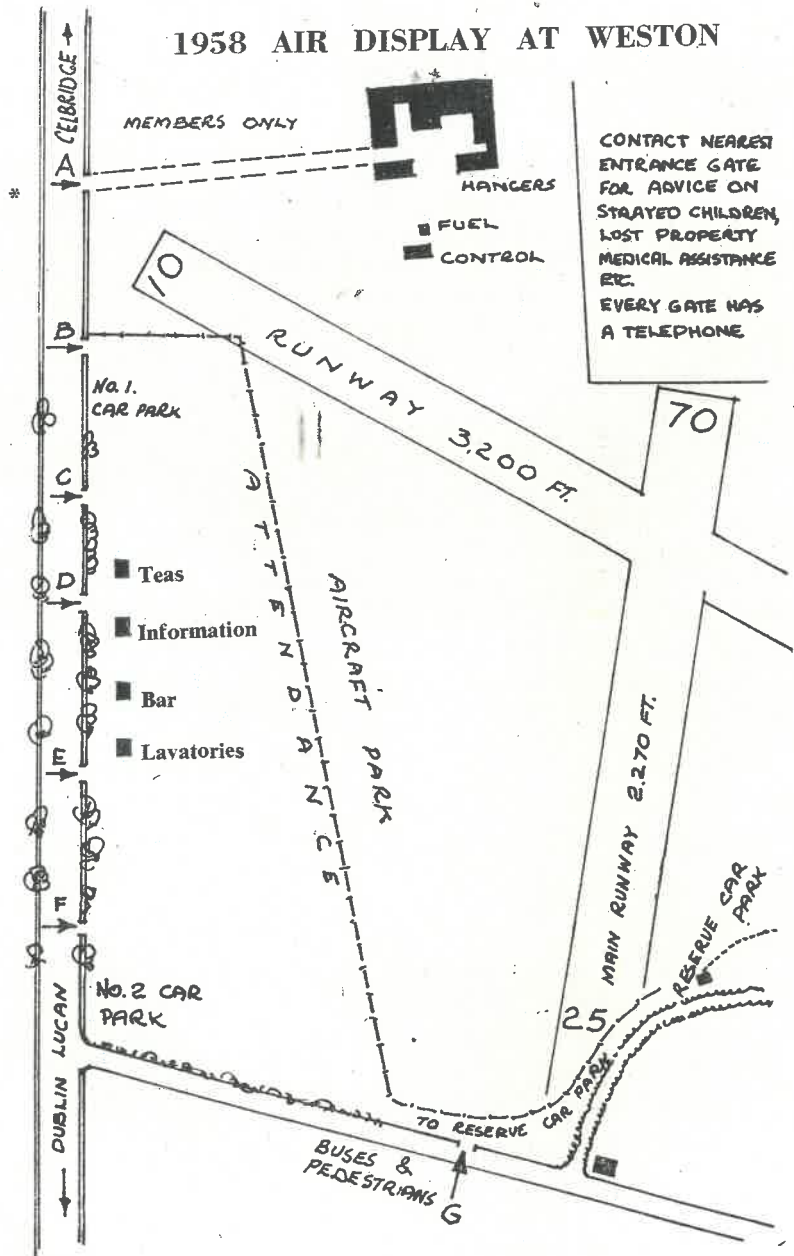

METROPOLE BALLROOM

INFORMAL DANCING EVERY FRIDAY, SATURDAY
AND SUNDAY THROUGHOUT THE SUMMER SEASON

↓ IOE COUGHLAN directing the METROPOLE ORCHESTRA

1958 AIR DISPLAY AT WESTON

*Gate A : Members Only.